P.R. China: Ms Wang Xiaoyan

Appeal to the German Federal Government to speak for Ms. Wang Xiaoyan

Sales woman Wang Xiaoyan, born on 20th september 1971, chinese member of the Buddhist meditation school Falun Gong, was arrested by the police in front of the entrance door of her apartment house in the seaport Dalian, province Liaoning, on 27th may 2006 and sent to the remand prison Yaojia/Dalian. On 12th july 2006 she was transferred to the Masanjia labour camp where she is exposed to systematic torture. There has been no warrant of arrest and no accusation was brought in.
No trial has taken place, she was "sentenced" to two years of "reeducation by labour". She is not allowed to appeal to court. There is no information about her state of health. Miss Wang is married. Her husband could avert arrest. He lives as asylum seeker in Leipzig and is studying. Their daughter born in 1998 lives with her husband´s parents. Since the beginning of the persecution of Falun Gong by the CCP on 20th july 1999 many thousands of people have already been arrested. In june 2006 2898 victims were known by name who lost their lives in labour camps, police stations and mental institutions by external violence. The International Society for Human Rights claims Ms. Wang Xiaoyan´s immediate release.

With my signature I appeal for Ms. Wang Xiaoyan´s immediate and unconditional release, freedom of conscience in the People´s Republic of China as well as for the termination of the persecution of Falun Gong.
