Your Excellency,

I respectfully request your attention in the case to the Christian lawyer Gao Zisheng (43) , who was arrested in September 2007 in his house in Beijing.
I assume that he was arrested because of his engagement in human rights. He fought for the rights of the house churches, for the victims of the one-child-policy and against the expropriation of citizens . His wife and two children are still under house arrest. The international reputation of China as organizer of the Olympic Games 2008 suffers disrepute by this case. Please try to enhance it by being seen to adhere to the UN Declaration on Human Rights, which the constitution of China provides, too. I appeal to you to release Mr Gao Zisheng and to safeguard his safety and health.

In confidence of your careful attention,

Yours sincerely,
